FLOUR-Has ruled quite duil since our review of Thursday last, at prices quoted on that day. Owing to the limitmay be considered about fair. The demand is chiefly from mediate wants, as prices are too high for shipment. We quote small sales of Wilmington and Fayetteville brands at $6 for cross, $6 25 @ $6 50 for fine. $7 for superfine, and $7 50 $\display \text{bbl. for family ;—a small lot of extra family sold on

Eggs-Come in sparingly, and sell from carts at 18 @ 20 FISH .- No receipts of any description since our last, and the market is very poorly supplied. Our quotations in table represent prices of such as are in store. FEATHERS-Are in full stock, and dull at quotations .-

POTATOES .- Some few parcels of new Irish have been rought in and retailed from carts at $2 50 @ bushel; old sell from store at quotations. See table

GRAIN-In CORN we note a decline the past week of 2 cents on former quotation. Dealers have a fair stock in store, and are not disposed to operate much at present figures;—several cargoes are expected. The receipts for the week comprise 8,650 bushels, and sales as follows: 1,400 bushels at 58 cents, 3,700 do. at 56 cents, 2,750 do. on private terms, and 800 do. retailed from vessel at 60 cents # bushel -market closing at 56 cents. OATS-We notice a fair stock in store, with merely a retail demand. A lot of 70 bushels sold from vessel on Monday at 45 cents # bushel. —PEAS-No change to make on former prices. For Cow there is a fair enquiry existing, but in the absence of receipts we have no sales to report except in the small way from store. Parcels would readily bring 85 cents, and a prime lot might command a shade higher. No Black Eye on market; nominal at $1 10 @ $1 20 $ bushel .- RICE -- The market for clean rules rather dull, and no demand except from retailers ; -- small sales from store at 41 cents 2 B. Last sale from wharf was at $3 931 $100 lbs.

HAY.—The market remains fairly supplied with both Northern and Eastern make, and sales are difficult to effect except for a good article. No N. C. on market. Received since last review 290 bales Northern; 200 of which came to a dealer, and the balance sold at $1 $1 100 lbs., 90 days; and 177 bales Eastern, 140 of which were retailed from wharf at $1 37½ @ $1 40 $2 100 lbs.

Lime.—There is little or no demand at present for this article, and the market is fully stocked. We quote from store at $1 20 @ $1 30 # cask, as in quantity LUMBER .- River-Market decidedly dull. Some parcels offering, but no transactions. See table for last sales. Molasses .- No receipts for two weeks past, and the sur ply on market of former arrivals has been nearly all closed off. Small sales of Cuba from wharf at 36 @ 38 cents ?

PROVISIONS - The receipts of N. C. cured Bacon have been very small for several weeks past, and the quantity remaining in dealers hands is quite light; prices, however, are the same. We note a fair demand from grocers, with sales during the week at 12 @ 124 cents for hog round, and 13 a 134 cents # th for hams, as in quality. See table for quotations of sides and shoulders. In Western cured there has been nothing done except in the retail way. Fair supply in store, and demand limited. We quote at 91 @ 10 cents for shoulders, and 101@ 11 cts. # to for sides, as in quantity. --- LARD .--The market remains about the same for both N. C. and Western make. Some parcels of the former received, and sold at 12½ @ 13½ cents # fb, in bbls. and kegs. A lot of 32 kegs sold from store at 12½ cents. We quote at 12 a 13 ets. No sales in Western, and quotations nominal. See table. - BUTTER .- Northern is in fair supply, and sell slowly at 20 @ 26 cents & lb, as in quality. —— CHEESE —None on market, and we erase quotations. —— PORK.—The receipts of Northern mess have been small for two or three weeks past, and in consequence the supply in store has become materially reduced. Small sales at quotations. See table. SALT-The market is very well supplied with Liverpool sack, and at present there appears to be little demand. A cargo of 3,000 sacks received from Liverpool since last review, which was sold to arrive on private terms Selling from store at $1 15 @ $1 25 $ sack, as in quantity. Alum is in moderate supply, and sells from store at quotations. Shingles-We have no change to notice in this article.
